

SPEECH/LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST

QUALIFICATIONS: Master's Degree, Speech/Language Impaired

REPORTS TO: Principal/Special Education Coordinator

JOB GOAL: To use professional knowledge, evaluation, and intervention to minimize or eliminate speech and language deficits that interferes with the individual student's ability to derive benefit from the district's educational program.

PERFORMANCE RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Meet attendance standards
2. Meet standards in knowledge and competence in the communication areas of language, articulation, voice, fluency, and feeding/swallowing
3. Meet standards in knowledge and competence of the comprehensive speech and language evaluation process.
4. Meet standards in knowledge and competence in generating educationally relative goals and objectives based on the communication needs of individuals.
5. Meet standards in knowledge and competence in the areas of program implementation through appropriate service delivery options including but not limited to: consultation, direct intervention and collaboration.
6. Meet standards for interpersonal relationships
7. Meet documentation standards
8. Identifies those students who warrant speech/language services.
9. Diagnoses specific speech/language disorders
10. Schedules and conducts therapy for the students who require services
11. Plans and carries out the Individual Education Plan as part of the transdisciplinary team.
12. Consults with student, parents and professionals concerning progress in speech/language services.
13. Keeps records, writes reports and carries on clinical correspondence concerning the student's speech/language behavior.
14. Attends and/or conducts eligibility reviews and IEP meetings.
15. Completes IEP paperwork for students.
16. Provides information concerning the nature, purpose and outcome of speech/language therapy services to students, parents and professionals.
17. Performs miscellaneous, general, and specific duties as assigned.

TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT: 180 DAYS. Salary and benefits commensurate with contractual commitments.

EVALUATION: Performance of this job will be evaluated in accordance with administrative procedures and established contractual protocols.