ANNOUNCEMENTS

- The Learning Center is closed today. Mrs. Hild's students need to report to their alternate Study Hall / Homerooms today.
- Service Learning team will meet today during 2nd lunch.
- If you are attending the Teen Conference, forms need to be turned in to Mr. Stickling by tomorrow.
- Good luck to the girl's volleyball team as they play at Edison tonight at 4:00.
- Poms and Cheerleaders – don't forget that your dry cleaned uniforms must be turned into the office by this coming Friday. Broadmoor would like to congratulate the following students for participating in the Tazewell County Chess Tournament this past Saturday. The tournament was held at Georgetowne Middle School in North Pekin. Max Burling, Nate Bennett, Elli Jung, Kahri Jung, Dakota Daniels, Zachary Chism, Megan McGurr, Michael Young, Katie Ritchie, Tyler Inselmann, and Jared Dunn. These students did an outstanding job of representing their school and competing against other junior high students in the area. There were a total of 142 students from across Tazewell County who competed in this chess tournament. Out of that group we would especially like to recognize Max Burling who finished 5th overall at the 8th grade level and Katie Ritchie (8th overall) and Jared Dunn, who finished 4th overall at the 7th grade level.
