

2019 Comprehensive Literacy Model™ Advanced Summer Institute

June 4—June 7
Wilson Intermediate School,
900 Koch Street, Pekin, IL
8:00-4:30

You are invited to join the Pekin Comprehensive Literacy Model Teacher Training Site for a powerful four day institute. The Comprehensive Literacy Model focuses on literacy learning and teacher expertise in literacy teaching within a school improvement model. The institute will feature keynote speakers creating content to develop further in grade-band break out sessions targeted around teaching in a workshop classroom. This institute is designed to meet the needs of school improvement teams consisting of classroom teachers, instructional coaches, interventionists, special educators and administrators wishing to increase student achievement and teacher expertise in literacy.

Daily Schedule

8:00 Opening
Keynote Presentations

10:15 Grade Level Workshops/
Breakout Sessions/Featured
Speaker Presentations

11:45 Lunch Break (on your own)

12:45 Grade Level Workshops/
Breakout Sessions/Featured
Speaker Presentations

2:30 Closing General Session

3:30 School Team Planning
Time

Questions about the Institute? Contact:

Jenny Heath jennifer.heath@pekin.net
Deb Leach deb.leach@pekin.net
Stacey Melloy stacey.melloy@pekin.net

Questions about registration contact:
Jennifer Thomas Jennifer.thomas@pekin.net

Featured Speakers:

Steven Layne

Tuesday

Award-winning author Steven Layne has published over twenty books - children's picture books, young adult thrillers, gifts books for adults, and professional titles for teachers, too! Dr. Steven L. Layne promises a presentation to delight, empower, and motivate every teacher of literacy in grades K-8. For more information about Steven visit <http://www.stevelayne.com/>

Cris Tovani

Wednesday

Cris Tovani is a veteran teacher and nationally known consultant on issues of reading, content comprehension and assessment She is the author of I Read It But I Don't Get It, Do I Really Have to Teach Reading? and So, What do They Really Know? Cris will help us explore how to prevent fake reading and inspire us to help students of all levels build real meaning from their reading.

Anne Goudvis

Thursday

Anne is the coauthor (with Stephanie Harvey) of Comprehension Going Forward, The Comprehension Tool Kit and Strategies That Work, now in its third edition (2017). Anne will help us explore how we can teach comprehension across the curriculum and how to implement researchers workshop merging comprehension strategies in the content areas.

Lester Laminack

Friday

Lester Laminack, an award winning writer and consultant, is an author of several professional resources and children's books. In a recent blog Lester writes, "literature in all its many forms has such potential to expand the horizons of every child—regardless of background or baggage, privilege or poverty." Lester's passion is contagious. His presentation is certain to motive and inspire. Visit www.lesterlaminack.com for more about Lester.

Registration Options

- The entire 4 day institute at the rate of $450 per person or $400 per participant with 3 or more employed by the same school!
- Affiliated CLM District cost is $200 per participant!
- Administrators are free of charge with 3 or more participants.
- An introductory session will be offered for those that are new to the Comprehensive Literacy Model on Monday, June 3 from 1:00-3:00 at Wilson Intermediate School free of charge.
- All participants will receive ISBE recertification hours.
- One day registration is available for Tuesday, June 4 or Friday, June 7 at the rate of $350 per day.
- Participants will receive resources including professional text and student text.
- 2 hours of NLU graduate credit will be offered for an additional cost. More information can be found when registering.

NATIONAL
LOUIS UNIVERSITY

Registration opens
March 18!

To register visit
www.pekin.net/
Domain/36