

2019 Comprehensive Literacy Model™ Advanced Summer Institute

June 4—June 7
Wilson Intermediate School,
900 Koch Street, Pekin, IL
8:00-4:30

You are welcome to join the Pekin CLM Site for this powerful four day institute focusing on the Comprehensive Literacy Model. Each day will feature a keynote speaker as well as grade-band break out sessions targeted around teaching in a workshop classroom. This institute is designed to meet the needs of classroom teachers, instructional coaches, interventionists, and administrators.

Featured Speakers:

Steven Layne

Dr. Steven L. Layne serves as full time Professor of Literacy Education at Judson University in Elgin, IL. His vast array of experience working at multiple grade levels in the public schools allows him a unique camaraderie with teachers and librarians and his award-winning books for children and young adults add another appealing element to his dynamic presentations. For more information about Steven visit <http://www.stevelayne.com/>

Recipient of ILA's Adolescent Literacy Thought Leader Award in 2017, Cris Tovani is a veteran teacher, staff developer, and nationally known consultant on issues of reading, content comprehension and assessment in secondary classrooms. She is the author of I Read It But I Don't Get It, Do I Really Have to Teach Reading? and So, What do They Really Know? Cris Tovani taught first through twelfth grade for thirty-one years. Throughout her career, Cris has taken reading and writing research and apply it to all levels of learners.

Cris Tovani

Anne Goudvis

Anne Goudvis has been a classroom teacher, staff developer, and adjunct professor of reading and social studies. For the past fifteen years, she has worked at the Denver-based Public Education and Business Coalition as a staff developer and co-director of the Library Power project, a national initiative to improve teaching and learning in libraries and classrooms. Anne is the coauthor (with Stephanie Harvey) of Strategies That Work, now in its third edition (2017).

Lester L. Laminack, Professor Emeritus, Western Carolina University in Cullowhee, North Carolina has received multiple awards for excellence in teaching. Lester is now a full-time writer and consultant working with schools throughout the United States. In addition to publishing several professional resources, Lester is the author of six children's books. Visit Lester's web site to learn more about the works of Lester Laminack. <http://www.lesterlaminack.com/>

Lester Laminack

Registration Options

Please indicate on your registration if you are interested:

- An introductory session will be offered for those that are new to the Comprehensive Literacy Model on Monday, June 3 from 1:00-3:00 at Wilson School.
- 2 hours of NLU graduate credit will be offered for an additional cost. More information can be found when registering.
- All participants will receive ISBE recertification hours.
- District 108 employees will be offered 2 hours of in-house academy credit
- One day registration is available for Tuesday, June 4 or Friday, June 7
- Professional resources will be provided

Questions about the Institute? Contact:

Jenny Heath jennifer.heath@pekin.net
Deb Leach deb.leach@pekin.net
Stacey Melloy stacey.melloy@pekin.net

Questions about registration contact:

Jennifer Thomas
Jennifer.thomas@pekin.net

Non 108 staff cost per participant for the entire 4 day institute is $450 per person or $400 per participant with 3 or more employed by the same school.

Affiliated CLM District cost is $200 per participant.
Administrators are free of charge with 3 or more participants.

Click here to register

